ADVENTURES
OF THE
LITTLE WOMAN,
HER DOG
AND THE PEDLAR.

12½ Cents

There was a little woman,
As I have heard tell,
She went to market,
Her eggs for to sell.

She went to Market

All on the Market day,

And she fell asleep

On the king's highway.

On the king's highway.

And she fell asleep

All on the highway

And she fell asleep

By came a Pedlar,

His name it was Stout,

And he cut her petticoats,

All round about.

He cut her petticoats,

Up to her knees,

Which made the little woman

Begin for to freeze.

When this little woman
Began to awake,
She began to shiver,
And she began to shake.
She began to shake,
And she began to cry,
“Goodness, mercy on me,
’Sure this is not I!”

But if this be I,

As I hope it be,

I have a little dog at home,

And he will know me.

And it this be the
He will say the
But it is not the
He will say the
When this little
Come home to the
Up starts the little dog
And he is to be

And if this be I,
He will wag his tail,
But if it's not I,
He will bark and wail.
When this little woman
Came home in the dark,
Up starts the little dog
And began for to bark.

He began to bark,

And she began to cry,

“ Goodness, mercy on me,

’Tis surely not I !”

The dog ceased to bark,

The woman then did cry,

“ Goodness, mercy on me,

Now I know this is I !”
